

SYMPOSIUM

"AIMING FOR EFFECTIVE TASKS IN THE ENGLISH CLASSROOM"

PROF. MARTIN
EAST (UNIVERSITY OF AUCKLAND)

PROF. MASATOSHI SATO (UNIVERSIDAD ANDRÉS BELLO)

SATURDAY 28 OCTOBER 12:00~17:30
LECTURE / PANEL DISCUSSION

SUNDAY 29 OCTOBER 12:00~16:00
WORKSHOP / GENERAL DISCUSSION

VENUE: TOKYO WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY, ROOM 23101
TARGET: TEACHERS, RESEARCHERS, STUDENTS, THE PUBLIC
ADMISSION: FREE (RESERVATION REQUIRED)
APPLICATION AND MORE INFORMATION: QR CODE

YOU CAN ALSO REGISTER ON-SITE.

Program

Saturday 28 October

12:00 Registration

Keynote Speeches

12:30-14:00

“Teacher education: A crucial variable for the success of Task-Based Language Teaching in practice.”

Prof. Dr. Martin East

Break

14:30-16:00

“Communicative language teaching in Japan: It’s not the task but what you do with it.”

Prof. Dr. Masatoshi Sato

Panel Discussion Q&A

16:15-17:30

Prof. Martin East (Univ. of Auckland)
Prof. Masatoshi Sato (Univ. Andrés Bello)
Prof. Justin Harris (Kinki Univ.)
Prof. Tetsuo Harada (Waseda Univ.)

Program

Sunday 29 October

12:00 Registration

Workshops

12:30-13:30

“What if they don’t engage with the task when the task itself is supposedly effective?”

Prof. Dr. Masatoshi Sato

13:40-14:40

“The task construct: A second crucial variable for the success of TBLT in practice.”

Prof. Dr. Martin East

14:50 General Discussion Q&A

16:00 Closing

